

Player A. struck the cue ball which potted the pink and went on to roll gently up to the Black so that it came to rest hard up to it. The referee was left with no choice but to call 'Touching Ball'

Player A. then failed in his attempt in playing away from the Black to have the cue ball return to pot the Black legally and so left an easy frame winning 7 points for his opponent.